Committee(s) Assignment:

RECOGNITION OF APRIL 30, 2012 AS
"EL DÍA DE LOS NIÑOS – DAY OF THE CHILD" IN CHICAGO

WHEREAS, The greatest gift we will ever know is a child, born to love and grow. Making the world a better and safer place begins with young children. Children need emotional and physical stability and should not, ordinarily be separated from their parents; and

WHEREAS, Children need a safe and loving environment to grow, learn, excel and be happy. They are brilliant and ingenious in their own way. They try to depend on themselves to complete the task at hand. Their childhood is filled with bicycles and tricycles as well as bumps and bruises; and

WHEREAS, Día de los Niños (Children's Day) recognizes and acknowledges every child on earth. Children of the Latino community have much to contribute to the future of this city; and

WHEREAS, Children bring happiness in the lives of their parents and relatives. They are delicate and April 30th, Día de los Niños, commemorates the lives of our future pride and joy, our children. Children are a precious treasure, who will thrive on every hug and kiss. They will only be a child for a short time; and

WHEREAS, More than 5,000 children and their families attend the Chicago Día de los Niños Parade each year. The parade strives to raise awareness about the importance of education for children; and

WHEREAS, This year the Chicago Día de los Niños Parade will be held on Saturday, April 28, 2012 kicking-off at Plaza de Tenochtitlán on 18th Street and Blue Island Ave and culminating at Harrison Park on 18th Street and Wood Street with a Fiesta; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we, the Mayor and members of the City of Chicago City Council, assembled this 18th day of April 2012 A.D., do hereby declare April 30th, to be El Día de los Niños – Day of the Child in the City of Chicago.
